Hands and Feet Award

Award Nomination Application

ABOUT THE AWARD

The Hands and Feet Award is presented annually to a Scout who consistently goes out of his way to put the needs of others ahead of his own and is an exemplary role model for providing good turns and service. It is a Scout who lives with a Matthew 25:35-40 mindset, being the hands and feet of Christ.

For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' – Matthew 25:35-40 (ESV)

This award was established in 2011.

BEING PASSIONATE ABOUT PUTTING OTHERS FIRST

A Scout, who is typically passionate about obeying his Lord by loving his neighbor, is passionate about serving others humbly. This service includes giving his time, labor, and gifts. A Scout who is a candidate for this award will have evidence in his life that he faithfully serves others by:

- Putting others first
- Being one of the first Scouts to volunteer when occasions arise
- Helping teach other Scouts skills without being asked
- Faithfully serving at Troop service projects
- Frequently helping with Eagle projects
- Serving in his community outside of Scouts or in his church
- Sharing the Gospel with others
- Showing hospitality to others by sharing what he has with others

BEING CONSIDERED FOR THIS AWARD

In order for a Scout to be considered for this award, he must be nominated by a Troop Scout or an adult leader of the Troop. Scouts may not nominate themselves. Individuals who nominate a Scout must complete this award nomination application and submit it to the Troop Committee Chair before the last Tuesday of April. The Troop's Executive Committee will evaluate the submitted applications and select the Scout who is to receive the annual award. Should one of the award candidates be a son of an Executive Committee member, that committee member will be replaced by a PEACH Board member for the application evaluation and selection process. The Hands and Feet Award will be presented to the honored Scout at the Troop's May Court of Honor.
